Services: includes removal, storage or removal and storage.

GENERAL

1. Notices
 - (a) All notices given under this Agreement must be given in writing, including email transmission.
2. Subcontracting
 - (b) The Service Provider may itself carry out any removal or storage work hereunder or may arrange for such work to be carried out wholly or partially by a sub-contractor.
3. Customer Warranties
 - (a) The Customer warrants that all information it has provided to the Customer, including all information about the Customer's goods, is accurate.
 - (b) The Customer warrants that the Customer will ensure that all goods are given to and taken by the Service Provider and that none are left behind or taken by the Service Provider in error.
 - (c) The Customer warrants that the Customer is the unfettered owner of the goods or has the authority to deal with such goods and to enter into the Agreement and shall indemnify the Service Provider against any claim arising or expense incurred as a result of any breach of this warranty.
4. Calculation of Interest
 - (a) The Service Provider shall be entitled to charge interest of any amount payable under this contract and overdue for more than 30 days at the standard commercial rate of the Reserve Bank of Australia. This is a default clause and should not be interpreted as an offer of credit.
5. Lien

- (a) All goods of the Customer received by the Service Provider shall be subject to a general lien for any moneys due by the Customer to the Service Provider relating to the work and/or the goods and moneys which the Service Provider has properly paid for which the Service Provider is liable.
- (b) If such moneys plus the related interest have been outstanding for a period of 26 weeks, the Service Provider may (without prejudice to any other rights or obligations which the Service Provider may have under this contract or by law) sell all or any of the goods and apply the net proceeds in satisfaction of any amount owing by the Customer to the Service Provider.

6. Force Majeure

- (a) Neither party shall be liable to the other for any loss or damage (direct or consequential) occasioned to the other from any cause beyond the control of the Service Provider or the Customer, as the case may be, including delay in transit, industrial disputes, acts of god, weather difficulties or acts of third parties.

7. Consumer Law

- (a) Nothing in this Agreement will operate to exclude any entitlements of the Customer under the Australian Consumer Law.

8. Prohibited Goods

- (a) Prohibited Goods are materials, articles or substances that are food, drink, hazardous, illegal, stolen, inflammable, explosive, corrosive, combustible, noxious, or environmentally harmful and for the purposes of Storage, includes anything that is likely to encourage vermin or pest.

REMOVAL

9. Removal Standards

- (a) The Customer warrants that the Customer will prior to the commencement of the services, give written notice to the Service Provider of any goods which are of a fragile or brittle nature and which are not readily apparent as such, and include any jewellery, plate, precious object, object d'art, work of art, medal, money, stamp, collection of items, fur or pieces of precious equipment in any case having a value in excess of $200. The Service Provider shall be at liberty to inspect all such goods, and to note any existing damage, defect or exceptional wear and tear to any item, which the Customer shall acknowledge and confirm as required by the Service Provider prior to providing services, who shall not be liable nor responsible for any noted pre-existing damage, defect or wear and tear.
- (b) The Service Provider is not a common carrier and at all times is entitled to refuse to carry or store any particular type of goods at its discretion.
- (c) The Service Provider shall be entitled to carry the goods by any route or method (having regard to all circumstances including the nature and destination of any other goods being carried on the vehicle) and by any means.
- (d) The Service Provider shall not be bound to deliver any goods except to the Customer or a representative authorised by the Customer in writing.

- (e) If the Customer or person authorised to receive the goods is unable to receive them, or if the Service Provider cannot by reason of circumstances beyond its control gain access to the place to which the goods are to be delivered, the Service Provider shall be entitled to unload the goods into its own or any other warehouse in reasonable proximity. Such unloading shall be deemed to be delivery and the Service Provider shall be entitled to make a reasonable additional charge in respect of storage, handling and delivery of goods thereafter.
- (f) Due to the nature of its work the Service Provider may send additional personnel on site thus exceeding the manpower quoted and a reasonable extra charge may thus be made.
- (d) The Customer or Customer's representative must be present during the loading and unloading of goods.

10. Booking, Cancellation and Rescheduling

- (a) The Customer shall pay a booking fee of $100 which is non-refundable upon cancellation.
- (b) If a firm date is agreed upon for the performance by the Service Provider or any service hereunder and the Customer requires such date to be cancelled or altered, the Service Provider shall in its sole discretion be entitled to make a reasonable additional charge for any loss or additional expense occasioned thereby.

11. Prohibited Goods

- (a) The Customer shall indemnify the Service Provider against any loss or damage which may be suffered by the Service Provider through the presence of Prohibited Goods in any goods removed for the Customer, and against any claim made against the Service Provider by any other person arising therefrom. In the event of discovery by the Service Provider of any Prohibited Goods after goods have been received by it, the Service Provider may take action in relation thereto including remove, destroy or otherwise dispose of or treat the same at the expense of the Customer and without in any way becoming liable to the Customer.

12. Electrical Equipment and Whitegoods

- (a) The Customer is responsible for disconnecting and reconnecting any electrical equipment and whitegoods. The Customer may request the Service Provider, and the Service Provider may accept or reject at its sole discretion, to disconnect and reconnect basic electrical equipment and white goods on collection and delivery subject to an additional cost for the extra time taken to undertake the Customer's request.

13. Variation

- (a) Where the work ultimately required by the Customer to be undertaken varies from the work for which a quotation or estimate is given (for instance, as to the nature or quantity of goods to be carried, whether the goods are required to be detached, dismantled, secured, assembled or installed, the nature or location of the premises from or to which the goods are to be carried), the Service Provider shall be entitled to make an additional charge to cover the reasonable costs of the variation, including payments to a third party to obtain or effect delivery of the goods.

14. Special Arrangements

- (a) Every special arrangement to the effect that charges shall be paid by any person other than the Customer shall be deemed to include a stipulation that if such other person does not pay the said charge within 14 days of delivery or tendered delivery of the goods then the Customer shall pay the said charges.

15. Damage and Loss

- (a) The Service Provider shall not be liable for the loss or damage resulting from improper or inadequate packing or unpacking, unless the goods damaged or causing damage were both packed and unpacked by the Service Provider.
- (b) Any request by the Customer for the Service Provider to install any plumbing or electrical services is made at the risk of the Customer. The Service Provider shall not be liable whatsoever for any electrical or mechanical plumbing derangement to goods.
- (c) The Service Provider shall not be liable for any loss or damage resulting from the dismantling and assembling of goods for the Customer. Any such dismantling and assembling will occur with reference to the goods in their current state and will not involve improving the goods.
- (d) The Service Provider shall not be liable for any loss or damage to goods incurred in the provision of removal services, except to the extent that such loss or damage is a direct result of the Service Provider's negligence. The liability for any such loss or damage shall be limited to the extent of the value of the good/s subject to the loss or damage.
- (e) The Customer must notify the Service Provider of the loss of any goods within 48 hours of the date when the goods would ordinarily have been delivered, and of damage to any goods within 24 hours of delivery. If no written claims are made under this clause within the stipulated timeframes, then the liability, if any, of the Service Provider hereunder shall thereupon cease.
- (f) In the event of the loss or damage of any article or articles in a collection, pair, suite, set, or other combination, the value of the particular article or articles lost or damaged shall be determined without regard to the value which such article or articles may have had as part of any such collection etc.

16. Payment

- (a) Payment by the Customer must be paid in full on uplift for interstate and long distance or any fixed price quoted made prior to the move by the Service Provider.
- (b) When an hourly rate is quoted full payment is payable immediately on the last item from the delivery vehicle being placed within the delivery area.
- (c) The hourly rate will continue until the driver is fully paid.
- (d) In-addition travel time is charged from base to base on outward and return journey, at the stated hourly rate.

- (e) Payment must be made in the form of cash, bank cheque, or MasterCard/Visa/AMEX only. No personal cheques will be accepted.
- (f) The use of MasterCard or Visa will incur a Surcharge of 1.95 and the use of AMEX will incur a Surcharge of 3.1 to offset the changes made to the Service Provider from the credit card organizations
